Introduction

The Dividend Distribution Policy (“Policy”) of Exide Industries Limited (“the Company”) endeavors to maintain a consistent approach towards dividend payment to its shareholders and regulate the process of dividend declaration and its payout by the Company in accordance with the applicable Sections of the Companies Act, 2013, the rules made there under, and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (as amended) and any other law as applicable for the time being in force.

In order to help investors to get a clearer picture on returns from their investments in the Company and also identify the stocks matching their investment objectives, the market regulator namely, the Securities and Exchange Board of India has made it mandatory for top 500 listed entities to have a dividend distribution policy.

Objective

The Company has an objective of appropriately rewarding shareholders through dividends and long-term capital appreciation. The profits earned by the Company may either be retained in business and/or used for acquisitions, expansion, diversification, and/or they can be distributed to the shareholders as dividend.

The Company would endeavour to strike the right balance between the quantum of dividend paid and amount of profits retained in the business for various purposes. Through this Policy, the Company would endeavour to maintain a consistent approach to dividend pay-out plans by reconciling between all these needs.

Legal Framework

The Companies Act, 2013 lays down certain provisions for declaration of dividend (both interim and final), which are as follows:

- a. Section 51 permits companies to pay dividends pro-rata, in proportion to the amount paid-up on each share when all shares are not uniformly paid up.
- b. No dividend shall be declared or paid by the Company for any financial year except out of the profits of the Company for that year arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with Section 123 (2) of the Act or out of profits of the Company for any previous financial year/years arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of above sub-Section and remaining undistributed or out of both or out of moneys provided for by the Central Government or State Government for payment of dividend in pursuance of a guarantee given by the concerned Government [Section 123(1)].
- c. Section 123(6) prohibits a company violating provisions as regards acceptance or repayment of deposits from declaring dividend on its equity shares, as long as such failure continues.

- d. No dividend shall be declared or paid by a company out of its reserves other than free reserves.
- e. In accordance with Section 134(3)(k), Board of directors must state in the Directors' Report the amount of dividend, if any, which it recommends to be paid to the shareholders.

The following are some major conditions of the Companies (Declaration and Payment of Dividend) Rules, 2014 (Rule 3) regarding declaration of dividend out of surplus in the absence of adequacy or absence of profits in any year:

- a. The rate of dividend declared shall not exceed the average of the rates at which dividend was declared by it in the three years immediately preceding that year.
- b. The total amount to be drawn from such accumulated profits shall not exceed 1/10th of the sum of its paid-up share capital and free reserves.
- c. The amount so drawn shall first be utilised to set off the losses incurred in the financial year in which dividend is declared before any dividend in respect of equity shares is declared.
- d. The balance of reserves after such withdrawal shall not fall below 15% of its paid up share capital as appearing in the latest audited financial statement.

Dividend Payment History

For more than two decades, the Company has been paying dividends to its shareholders every single year. The final dividend is recommended by Board of Directors ("Board") at the beginning of a new financial year based on the financial performance of the immediately preceding financial year, the same is distributed amongst the shareholders after its confirmation at the annual general meeting. The Interim dividend is however declared by the Board based on the financial performance of the Company for part of the year along with few other criteria.

Dividend Distribution

Subject to various parameters mentioned hereinafter, it is the intention of the Board to maintain a reasonable dividend pay-out ratio. Such dividend will be paid annually within 30 days of the AGM declaring such dividend. However, the Board may at its discretion pay interim dividend or special dividends on any special occasion or may pay both interim and final dividend in the proportion as it may deem fit to the Board, in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. While deliberating on the recommendation of dividend, the Board will seek to balance the benefit made available to the shareholders of the Company with the comparative advantages of retaining profits in the Company which would lead to greater value creation for all stakeholders.

The Board, considering the business & financial parameters and external factors as listed in this Policy, shall endeavour to maintain dividend pay-out ratio between 15% to 35% of its annual standalone Profits after Tax (PAT). The Board at their discretion would recommend a higher or lower dividend considering the business considerations and provide the rationale of such decision in the Board's report forming part of the Annual Report of the Company. The Board may additionally recommend special dividend as and when it deems fit in excess of the aforementioned dividend payout ratio.
